Parker County Library Association:

The six libraries in Parker county (Azle, Weatherford, Springtown, East Parker County, and Mineral Wells) are working together to share materials to better serve you. Items can be delivered between the five libraries free of charge, per patron request. In addition, your library card will work at any of these six libraries. For more information, or to request an item from one of the libraries, please contact a library staff member or visit www.mypcla.com.

Library Cards:

Library cards are available free of charge. To apply, adults (18+) must present a Texas Drivers license/ID and proof of mailing address. Minors ages five (5) to seventeen (17) must have a parent or legal guardian present to apply for a card. The parent or legal guardian must also have a library card. New card holders will be limited to two items on their first checkout. A valid library card or photo ID is required for all checkouts.

Checkout Limits:

Books / Audiobooks.....no limit
DVD / Blu-ray.....10 per adult card

Check-out Period:

Renewing Items:

Items may be renewed by phone (817-752-2682), email (library@cityofazle.org), in person, or by logging into your library account online.

Placing Holds:

If you find an item you want, but it is checked out, you may hold the item. When the item is returned the library will notify you by phone or e-mail, then place the item on the hold shelf for 3 days. Holds may be placed at the Information Desk, via phone, or online through your patron account (click on "place request" next to the desired item in the online catalog).

Fine Rates (per item):

Books /Audiobooks.....$0.10/day
DVD / Blu-ray.....$1.00/day

If an item that is checked out to you is damaged or lost, you may be charged a damage or replacement fee. A $3.00 processing fee will be charged per item that requires replacement or is lost. Please report all damaged items to a library staff member as soon as possible.

Interlibrary Loan

If the PCLA libraries do not have an item you are looking for, it may be possible to borrow the item from another library. It may take 2-4 weeks for the item to arrive. A charge of $3.00 is made per item to help cover the cost of shipping. Interlibrary Loan request forms can be found at the Information Desk.

Computers and Internet Access

The Library offers computers with Internet access, word processing software, and other general programs, available free of charge. Users are required to sign in to the computers with their library barcode and password. Guest passes are available at the Information Desk.

Wireless Internet (Wi-Fi) access is available throughout the Library building.
